An appeal conference was held on Friday October 30, 2009. Participants were Ben Utech, Christina Johnson and Jeff Wollschlager. The conferees concluded that the prosecution history and applicant's specification makes it clear that the elastic bladder set forth in the claims is properly construed as being limited to a single layered bladder of rubbery elastic material such as the rubber material set forth in paragraph [0021] of the published application, US 2005/020643.	11/2/09	JW
